Optical Illusions - Lesson 5

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home:

We can't earn our way to Heaven, but that doesn't mean accepting God's grace is easy. Some of us struggle with forgiving ourselves. The parable of the prodigal son teaches us that God will always love us, no matter how much we mess up.

Luke 15:11-32, The Prodigal Son

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

What did the younger son do in Jesus' story? (Left home and spent all his money.)

What did he do when he got hungry? (Went home to his father.)

What did his father do? (Welcomed him home, made a feast.)

What did the older brother do? (Got angry, rejected his brother.)

AT DINNER:

- Here are some great discussion starters:
- What are some things people do that God doesn't like?
- How do people really mess up their lives?
- Can you mess up your life so badly that God will stop loving you?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this series' second memory verse, Hebrews 11:1.

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know:

In this lesson series we've been using optical illusions as a fun thing to teach about truth. In today's story of the prodigal son our kids learned that God will always love us no matter what we do.
