

MAKE IT STICK

5 SIMPLE WAYS
YOU CAN MAKE
THIS LESSON STICK
WITH YOUR KIDS

Optical Illusions - Lesson 6

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home:

The world tells us that people who had the most success and the most things are winners. The Bible reminds us that when we die, all that success stays here. The book of Ecclesiastes teaches that success and possessions are meaningless. Only knowing Jesus will matter in the end.

Ecclesiastes 5:8-20

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

Does the Bible teach that stuff will make you happy? (No.)

Are rich people usually happy with their riches? (No.)

Where can we find real happiness? (Loving and following Jesus.)

AT DINNER:

- Here are some great discussion starters:
- Is it okay to want things and to enjoy our things?
- Is it better to be content with a little or unhappy with a lot?
- How can we work at being content with what we have?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this series' second memory verse, Hebrews 11:1. Discuss with them that faith means that we can trust in God's Bible promises even when we don't always see Him working, and we can trust that He is always near us and always at work.

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know:

The world tells us that people who had the most success and the most things are winners. The Bible reminds us that when we die, all that success stays here. The book of Ecclesiastes teaches that success and possessions are meaningless. Only knowing Jesus will matter in the end.
